Mailboxes occasionally become damaged during snow removal. It is not done intentionally. We do repair or replace, if need be, any mailbox that we may damage on a Town Road (many roads in Gaines are State/County Roads). If replacement is necessary, a standard box will be installed.

It should be noted that no legal authority requires us to do so. In fact, Section 319 of the NYS HIGHWAY LAW proposes that mailboxes are considered obstructions and are purely allowed as a convenience. Please be sure that your mailbox is secured to its post.

Section 1219 of the NYS Vehicle and

Traffic Law prohibits the act of pushing snow from private driveways onto a roadway or shoulder. This may well cause a serious accident, and the offender can be held liable. Please advise your snow removal contractor.

Slick road can contribute to a collision, but accidents are generally caused by drivers who fail to adjust their own driving to meet the conditions present. Drive safely!

CHRISTMAS PAST

Dee Robinson, Gaines Historian

Email: deerob@mail.com Phone 585-589-4355

Gaines History Website: www.gaineshistory.org

I thought it might be refreshing to read about a Christmas past! I found two snippets in the Orleans Republican newspaper about Christmas nearly a century ago. In the December 20, 1916 issue was this recounting of preparations for Christmas in Gaines.

"Merry Christmas to all readers of the Republican. . . . The annual W.C.T.U. reception will be held one week from Friday. Further notice given next week. . . . A Christmas entertainment will be given at the Grange Thursday evening by the children, with a little help from some of the older ones. A surprise is in store for the little folks, so all parents are urged to come and bring their children. A Christmas pantomime will be one of the features, dialogues, music, etc., all together making a splendid treat. Be sure and come. . . . The Christmas concert was well attended and the little folks did well in songs and recitation. Little three-year-old Winton Hatch made his debut as a soloist and did very nicely, considering his age. . . . At the community social last week, the supper was served by the gentlemen. O.C. Mather acted as "chef" and the delicious oyster stew he served deserved all the praise that was given. When it comes to cooking, "Orrie" can't be beat. E. A. Rowley, C. W. Prussia, L. W. Chester, H. R. Anderson, W. P. Howes, E. E. Barnum, Charles Wilson and William Eddy served the supper in fine style. The tables were tastefully arranged and everything was good. About 150 enjoyed the supper. The lecture was interesting and showed how the Mountain Whites live, and struggle on."

Also two years before in the Orleans Republican, on December 30, 1914, I found a report of Christmas at the schoolhouse at Childs, which is now the Schoolhouse at the Cobblestone Museum.

"The Christmas tree and exercises at the school house were enjoyed by all. The children presented their teacher with a handsome rug and basket. She, as usual, remembered them. John Anderson and Ralph Appleton furnished candy and an orange to each child."

Goodbye Loretta

Loretta Long has decided to step down as the Planning/Zoning Board Secretary and Deputy Town Clerk for the Town of Gaines. Loretta and her husband John moved to Gaines in 1962 from Ithaca NY. They have lived in Gaines since then with their two sons, Doug and Jeff. Loretta began her tenure at the Town in July of 1991. She started out as Deputy Town Clerk under Ruth Drew and continued to serve under Town Clerks Deborah Radzinski and Jean Klatt. In 1995 she took over the position of Planning/Zoning Board secretary. We wish Loretta the best of luck and thank her for her many years of wonderful service to the Town and its residents.

Goodbye Loretta, you will be missed.

Cake Balls

Prep Time: 40 minutes
Cook Time: 30 minutes
Ready in 1 hour 10 minutes
(without cooling)
Servings: 36

Ingredients:

1 (18.25 oz.) pkg. chocolate cake mix
1 (16 oz.) container prepared chocolate frosting
Chocolate for melting and coating the cake/frosting mixture (3 to 4 cups worth)

Directions

- prepare the cake mix to pkg. directions using any of the recommended pan sizes. When cake is done, let it cool for a while, then crumble while warm into a large bowl, and stir in the frosting until well blended. (if you do it while the cake is hot, it will be very gooey, some people also recommended using less frosting). Use a melon baller or small scoop to form balls of the chocolate cake mixture. Place the balls, in the fridge or freezer for at least an hour (some people recommended placing the mixture in the fridge before you form the balls, your choice).
- melt chocolate coating in a glass bowl in the microwave, or in a metal bowl over a pan of simmering water, stirring occasionally until smooth.
- Dip the balls in chocolates using a toothpick or fork to hold them. Place on waxed paper on a cookie sheet. Then decorate as you wish. Place in the fridge or freezer to set.

Tip: this recipe can be mixed and matched with many different cake/frosting combinations. Also, try putting nuts or chopped up candy in the cake/frosting mix.

A Parent's Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house
I searched for the tools to hand to my spouse.
Instructions were studied and we were inspired,
In hopes we could manage "Some Assembly Required."
The children were quiet (not asleep) in their beds,
While Dad and I faced the evening with dread:
A kitchen, two bikes, Barbie's town house to boot!
And, thanks to Grandpa, a train with a toot!

We opened the boxes, my heart skipped a beat....
Let no parts be missing or parts incomplete!
Too late for last-minute returns or replacement;
If we can't get it right, it goes in the basement!

When what to my worrying eyes should appear,
But 50 sheets of directions, concise, but not clear,
With each part numbered and every slot named,
So if we failed, only we could be blamed.

More rapid than eagles the parts then fell out,
All over the carpet they were scattered about.
"Now bolt it! Now twist it! Attach it right there!
Slide on the seats, and staple the stair!
Hammer the shelves, and nail to the stand."
"Honey," said hubby, "you just glued my hand."

And then in a twinkling, I knew for a fact
That all the toy dealers had indeed made a pact
To keep parents busy all Christmas Eve night
With "assembly required" till morning's first light.

We spoke not a word, but kept bent at our work,
Till our eyes, they went bleary; our fingers all hurt.
The coffee went cold and the night, it wore thin
Before we attached the last rod and last pin.

Then laying the tools away in the chest,
We fell into bed for a well-deserved rest.
But I said to my husband just before I passed out,
"This will be the best Christmas, without any doubt.

Tomorrow we'll cheer, let the holiday ring,
And not have to run to the store for a thing!
We did it! We did it! The toys are all set
For the perfect, most perfect, Christmas, I bet!"

Then off to dreamland and sweet repose I gratefully went,
Though I suppose there's something to say
for those self-deluded...
I'd forgotten that batteries are never included!

Christmas Crafts for Kids - Reindeer Craft Treat Holder

These whimsical little reindeer can serve as place card holders for a holiday table, party favors, or give a large reindeer as a gift, filled with the recipients favorite candy!

You'll Need:

Scissors
Craft glue, glue stick or glue dots
Terracotta clay pots; 2"-5"
Plastic eyes
Red pom-poms (glitter pom-poms are a fun addition!)
Three shades of brown craft foam, cardstock paper or construction paper;
we combined all three to make our reindeer family.

parts pictured for the large reindeer

2 antlers
2 large ears
2 small ears
2 eyes
one red nose

How to Make It:

First, with one shade of brown, cut the antlers to match the size of your pot. If you are making the larger reindeer, use a child's handprint as pattern. Then, cut the ears with the other brown. We used a lighter shade of brown to add yet another layer to the ears but that's not necessary.

Attach the ears to the back of the pot. Then add the antlers.

Glue the eyes and nose to the front. Fill the pot with candy, nuts or other goodies. It's that simple!

No Good Deed

The Missing Five Pound Note

Chippenham George worked for the Post Office and his job was to process all the mail that had illegible addresses. One day just before Christmas, a letter landed on his desk simply addressed in shaky handwriting: 'To God'. With no other clue on the envelope, George opened the letter and read:

Dear God,

I am an 93 year old widow living on the State pension. Yesterday someone stole my purse. It had £100 in it, which was all the money I had in the world and no pension due until after Christmas. Next week is Christmas and I had invited two of my friends over for Christmas lunch. Without that money, I have nothing to buy food with. I have no family to turn to, and you are my only hope. God; can you please help me?

Chippenham George was really touched, and being kind hearted, he put a copy of the letter up on the staff notice board at the main Fareham sorting office where he worked. The letter touched the other postmen and they all dug into their pockets and had a whip round. Between them they raised £95. [$170 USD] Using an officially franked Post Office envelope, they sent the cash on to the old lady, and for the rest of the day, all the workers felt a warm glow thinking of the nice thing they had done.

Christmas came and went. A few days later, another letter simply addressed to 'God' landed in the Sorting Office. Many of the postmen gathered around while George opened the letter. It read,

Dear God,

How can I ever thank you enough for what you did for me? Because of your generosity, I was able to provide a lovely luncheon for my friends. We had a very nice day, and I told my friends of your wonderful gift - in fact we haven't gotten over it and even Father John, our parish priest, is beside himself with joy. By the way, there was £5 [$10 USD] missing. I think it must have been those thieving fellows at the Post Office.

George could not help musing on Oscar Wilde's quote: 'A good deed never goes unpunished'
